ELECTION JUDGES
HAVE BEEN NAMED

Three election judges were appointed last night by the board of education at its regular meeting to handle the election of a board member from the first ward. They were Mrs. Ruth Zuppang, Mrs. Hedvig Brown and Mrs. Alice Collins. The election will be held next Wednesday from 7 a. m. to 7 p. m., and will be in the Pingree school. President James Riley of the board of education is the incumbent of the position to be filled.

The board moved to allow payment of $20,000 for text books which have been purchased. A communication was read from the Ogden Public Teacher's association protesting against the giving of but one day of vacation for Thanksgiving. The communication was ordered filed.

A claim for $96 for clerk hire was ordered paid by the board to the county. It was for hire of expert clerks used during the recent bond election.

On recommendation of the school architect, it was voted to allow $5,000 to William Treseder, contractor, for repairs to the Lewis school. The contractor has nearly $1,000 more coming to him.
